How MainGate Handles Capital Gains

Fund Level Capital Gains from Portfolio Investment Activities Are Never Reflected on MainGate Shareholders' 1099's

MEMPHIS, November 6, 2018 — In an effort to both clarify and confirm exactly how capital gains from its portfolio investments are treated, the MainGate MLP Fund has distributed the following statement. This language now appears — as part of a wealth of Fund information — on MainGate's website, www.maingatefunds.com.

*Due to the Fund's "C" corporation tax structure, shareholders receive a 1099 DIV statement that reflects income received and Return of Capital* associated with quarterly distributions for the year. There will be no capital gains reflected on the 1099.*

Potential capital gain/loss activity from the Fund's investment portfolio is handled at the Fund level and does not flow to the Fund shareholder via their 1099.

The MainGate MLP Fund offers three share classes: Class A shares (AMLPX; $2,500 minimum initial investment), Class C shares (MLCPX; $2,500 minimum initial investment), and Class I shares (IMLPX; $1,000,000 minimum initial investment).

Disclosures

The Fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses must be considered carefully before investing. The statutory and summary prospectuses contain this and other important information about the investment company and may be obtained by calling 855.MLP.FUND (855.657.3863). Read them carefully before investing.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. The Fund is nondiversified, meaning it may concentrate its assets in fewer individual holdings than a diversified fund. Therefore, the Fund is more exposed to individual security price volatility than a diversified fund. The Fund will invest in Master Limited Partnerships (MLPs) which concentrate investments in the natural resource sector and are subject to the risks of energy prices and demand and the volatility of commodity investments. Damage to facilities and infrastructure of MLPs may significantly affect the value of an investment and may incur environmental costs and liabilities due to the nature of their business. MLPs are subject to significant regulation and may be adversely affected by changes in the regulatory environment. Investments in smaller companies involve additional risks, such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. Investments in foreign securities involve greater volatility and political, economic and currency risks and differences in accounting methods. MLPs are subject to certain risks inherent in the structure of MLPs, including complex tax structure risks, limited ability for election or removal of management, limited voting rights, potential dependence on parent companies or sponsors for revenues to satisfy obligations, and potential conflicts of interest between partners, members and affiliates.

Past performance does not guarantee future results.

Earnings growth for a Fund holding does not guarantee a corresponding increase in the market value of the holding or the Fund.

Opinions expressed are those of MainGate and are subject to change, are not guaranteed, and should not be considered investment advice.

An investment in the Fund does not receive the same tax advantages as a direct investment in the MLP.

The Fund is treated as a regular corporation or "C" corporation and is therefore subject to U.S. federal income tax on its taxable income at rates applicable to corporations (currently at a rate of 21%) as well as state and local income taxes.

MLP Funds accrue deferred income taxes for future tax liabilities associated with the portion of MLP distributions considered to be a tax-deferred return of capital and for any net operating gains as well as capital appreciation of its investments. This deferred tax liability is reflected in the daily NAV and as a result the MLP Fund's after-tax performance could differ significantly from the underlying assets even if the pre-tax performance is closely tracked.

The potential tax benefits from investing in MLPs depend on them being treated as partnerships for federal income tax purposes.

If the MLP is deemed to be a corporation then its income would be subject to federal taxation, reducing the amount of cash available for distribution to the Fund which could result in a reduction of the Fund's value.

*Any tax or legal information provided is merely a summary of our understanding and interpretation of some of the current income tax regulations and is not exhaustive. MLPs and MLP investments have unique tax characteristics. Investors must consult their tax advisor or legal counsel for advice and information concerning their particular situation.
